I am a seasoned producer who has worked freelance in a variety of creative leadership positions (director, dp, and editor) in tv/film/new media for well over a decade. I understand how to develop a simple idea into a finished project, on time and on budget. I know every aspect of production and am proficient in dozens of computer programs, including Final Cut Pro and DVD Studio Pro. I have created award winning broadcast commercials, features, on-air promo's, corporate videos and over a 1,000 webisodes. Please visit my web site for samples of my work – www.KeithSolomon.com.
